

Our Mission:

Ealing Quakers are deeply concerned by the effects of austerity measures locally and nationally. We want to brief ourselves and others about the true position, in hopes of afterwards undertaking considered and concerted action.

*For more information email

Austerity and Ealing:

In our Borough, what effects are the various austerity measures having?

Spirit of 45

“An impassioned documentary about how the spirit of unity which buoyed Britain during the war years carried through to create a vision of a fairer, united society.”

Film by Ken Loach

Mental Health in Ealing

Panellists:

Eric Leach, campaigner and father of a son who is a user of mental health services in Ealing

The UK Gold, film by Christian Aid and partners

The Guardian: “an ambitious and admirably clear assault on the UK's lamentable record in the tax avoidance industry”

From Ealing Equality Council

EEC provides advice services at several sites on all aspects of disadvantage.

From Ealing community development

Jackie Sear of EASE, projects for personal and community development, Copley Close, Hanwell

From Ealing Food Bank:

Why are foodbanks needed in 21st Century Britain? Ealing will soon have 3 foodbank sites.

Pre-election panel: We will seek speakers from each major party with candidates in the May elections and ask them about the impact of austerity on Ealing.
